RE: Mail Ballots Returned as Undeliverable

---

DC Board of Elections (BOE) was asked to provide information regarding mail ballots that were returned as undeliverable. We are still receiving undelivered mail ballots from the US Postal Service (USPS). We have begun processing those that have been received. We will provide information regarding the number of returned mail ballots that were sent to universities within the District of Columbia. As of March 1, we have the following information from USPS:

Moved In-State: (No change of address submitted)	17,423
Moved Out-of-State: (No change of address submitted)	25,338
Deceased:	243
Temporarily Away:	714
Unable to Forward:	44,203
Total Undeliverable Mail Ballots:	87,921*

**As of March 1, 2023*
